KATHERINE B. FORREST, District Judge:

The Court has further considered the issue raised in the NYSE letter, dated June 13, 2012, as well as Realtime's response. The Court ORDERS as follows:

1. NYSE shall provide Realtime with a list of market data feeds that are compressed in FAST format in the United States.
2. The NYSE should answer the requests propounded in Realtime's First Requests for Admission ("RFAs"); the Court does not have the other sets of RFAs in its possession--but if they are of a similar nature, the parties should confer to resolve whether those RFAs can be answered without undue burden. (For guidance, if those RFAs are of a similar nature to those in the First Set of RFAs, the Court is likely to order answering a reasonable number of them.)

SO ORDERED:

Dated: New York, New York
July 11, 2012
